IMEC (Marie Cobel) with “Friends”
January 22, 1985

Session 48: Summary of Aspects

Summary: In this session, a psychologist, Roy, joins the discussion. The Friends summarize what aspects are and their influence to form a dominant personality. The overall lesson is that these aspects of personality are not the core being, they are the interface which is used to relate to the physical plane. The aspects have both a positive and negative personification which should be understood and expressed.

Report by Daniel Erickson
Edited by S. Solomon